Faculty Advisers

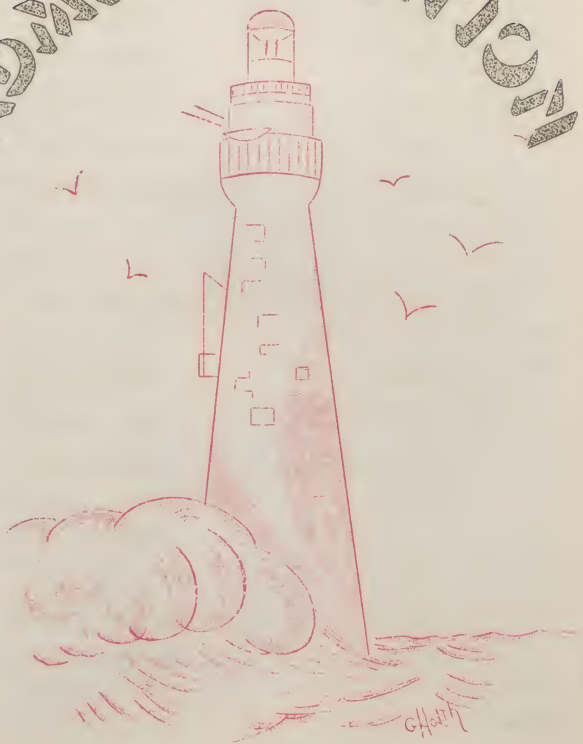

As a mark of appreciation for the loyal, patriotic effort of the boys in the armed forces from the Senior class of Lowell High School; Theo Black, Robert Carlson, Dwight Childers, John Childers, Robert Cullen, William Kingery, George Stowell, and Robert Temske, This book is respectfully dedicated.

*Build me straight, O worthy Master!
Staunch and strong, a goodly vessel
That shall laugh at all disaster,
And with wave and whirlwind wrestle!*

HONOR STUDENTS

Each year, the three Seniors who have accumulated the highest number of honor points through their four years of high school receive recognition in the Lowellian, and have their names engraved on the gold plaque in the main hall of the building. The three who will represent the Class of '43 are:

Robert Crisler.....	124 points
Betty Hudson.....	104 points
Earle McGraw.....	101 points

SENIOR GIFT

Due to wartime difficulties, it was necessary for the Class of 1943 to purchase a United States War Bond as its gift to the school. Sometime in the future, the bond will be used to help purchase a football score board.

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age has increased from 1.1 billion to 1.5 billion, and the number of people aged 65 and over has increased from 0.2 billion to 0.4 billion (United Nations 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of the young and the old. The United Nations (1999) has identified the need to address the needs of the young and the old as one of the eight Millennium Development Goals. The United Nations (1999) has also identified the need to address the needs of the young and the old as one of the eight Millennium Development Goals.
